Motion made by Commissioner Cover to approve the agenda

Seconded by Commissioner Smith.

Vote was unanimous.

Discussion began on which cars need to be sold and which to keep, and what to use the Durango for. Commissioner Reavis asked if we know which car was in the best condition.

Commissioner Cover asked if they had not already decided to donate the White Crown Vic to the Fire Department. Commissioner Almond said to stay with what was originally planned.

The general consensus was to keep the Durango. Commissioner Reavis said since we do not know which car is the best, just leave it with the way it was voted on previously.

Motion made by Commissioner Smith to keep the Durango automobile and use as a town car.

Seconded by Commissioner Reavis
